

The Scandinavian TPC hosted by Annika

(Bro Bålsta Golf Club, Stockholm, Sweden – August 8th 2006) – This week the world's number one Annika Sörenstam returns home to Sweden to host her own tournament, The Scandinavian TPC, hosted by Annika.

The tournament takes place from 10th -13th August at her home course, Bro Bålsta Golf Club. The Scandinavian TPC, hosted by Annika is one of the largest golf tournaments in Europe and has attracted many of the worlds top women players including Mexico's Lorena Ochoa, the World no.2, as well as America's Sherri Steinhauer, who was last week crowned the 2006 Weetabix Women's British Open Champion.

Having won the event three times in the last five years, as well as the recent US Women's Open, Annika will naturally be the star attraction.

"I am excited about "hosting" my own tournament in Sweden with the creation of this new event "The Scandinavian TPC hosted by Annika" which will be taking place during the second week of August. Women's golf has always received terrific support from the Swedish public and I have always enjoyed playing in front of my home crowd" she said.

Davies and Dobson to walk the Great Wall of China

England's Laura Davies and Helen Dobson will walk the Great Wall of China for charity this October.

They are looking to raise money for Great Ormond Street, the children's hospital that has cared for Dobson's one-year-old daughter Tally, who was born with Downs Syndrome.

Tally was born with cataracts in both of her eyes and she has been wearing contact lenses since the age of three weeks. "I've been up to Great Ormond Street umpteen times since Tally was born so it's nice to be able to give something back," said Dobson, who played on the LET from 1990-2001.

Davies and Dobson are arranging a pro am in Kent for the end of September and anyone interested in sponsorship opportunities should contact either Helen Dobson or Ladies European Tour headquarters. E-mail: do1971@aol.com or mail@ladieseuropeantour.com

Meet LET Tournament Secretary Valeria Luna

A role created this year and shared between Valeria and her colleague Stephanie Guiroy, the position of Tournament Secretary and Player Liaison is one that calls for a great deal of multi-skilling. As the first point of contact for players, Valeria takes care of tournament entry and withdrawals, registration, general administration and is often called upon for her skills as a translator (Valeria speaks fluent English and Spanish), negotiator, nurse and diplomat.

Additionally, Valeria is the link between the Tournament Director and the players as well as liaising with the LET staff at head office in Macclesfield and those who work at tournaments, providing support and coordination for both teams. Valeria cites the satisfaction of helping others as the best part of her job.
